To whom it may concern

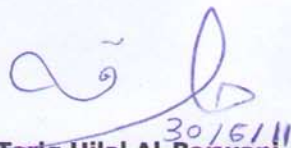

I am pleased to write this personal recommendation letter for Dr. Manishankar Chakraborty, whom I had the privilege to work with on a community knowledge platform, www.knowledgeoman.com, in which Dr. Manishankar was actively involved in sharing his knowledge voluntarily to the community.

KnowledgeOman.com is a platform for connecting people in the community to create, share and promote knowledge through online-based and offline driven initiatives. KnowledgeOman.com received a global brand leadership award at the world brand congress 2010, for the community brand leadership, and an international standard web technology awards during the Oman web awards competition 2009, for the website. Today KnowledgeOman.com has over 66 members working voluntarily to serve the mission of creating, sharing and promoting knowledge across the Sultanate, and has so far attracted over 9000 members registered since April 2008 with over 2 million visitors already.

Dr. Manishankar has been contributing knowledge related articles on a periodical basis on interesting topics that include but is not limited to Leadership, Management, and Entrepreneurship. Most of the members have shown great interest in his articles that were noteworthy both for the academicians and professionals.

I highly recommend Dr. Manishankar to any organization as he is indeed a valuable asset and a great person to work with.

Yours Sincerely,

30/6/11
